TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure that there has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ, and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., New York, N. Y.

Assaulted by Negroes.

The fourteen-year-old daughter of Carl Zestra, at Lodore, Amelia county, was criminally assaulted December 23, by a negro identified by his victim as Jesse Gilliam, seventeen years old, who escaped and is still at large. The relatives of the young woman up to this time have succeeded in suppressing the facts, believing that the fugitive would be overtaken and brought to justice. The board of supervisors of Amelia county has offered a reward of $100 for the capture of Gilliam, but the negro up to this time has eluded pursuit. Miss Zestra was waylaid in a secluded spot about a mile from her home by a negro, who, she declares, was Gilliam. She knew him well, having seen him a hundred times at work on an adjoining farm. The girl fought the negro desperately and twice regained her feet after she had been thrown to the ground, but was finally rendered unconscious by a blow. Bruises on her hands, arms, and neck bear out the story she relates of her fight with her assailant. She arrived at her home several hours later more dead than alive, and is still under the treatment of physicians. Governor Montague has been notified of the crime and the escape of the negro, and will offer an additional reward of $100 for his capture.

Miss Annie Booz, teacher of a county school near Milford, Sussex county, Del., was attacked by a negro on Monday morning while on her way to school. He first asked for alms, then put his hand over her mouth, and threw her to the ground. She managed to tell her assailant that three white men were watching him and gave him her schoolhouse keys, telling him that she had money there, which he might have. The negro then started for the school, when Miss Booz sprang to her feet and ran screaming for help. Three men heard her, and ran after the negro, who had entered the schoolhouse. He saw them coming and managed to escape to the woods. A telephone message from Dover last night says the negro who attacked Miss Booz had been captured at 9 o'clock and reached Milford half an hour later. Threats to lynch him were made, and Sheriff Baker at Dover was sent for. Officers of the National Guard are in the armory at Wilmington, prepared to start for Milford if a call is made. The enlisted men are not there, but are under orders to report.

Wind and Rain Storm.

While the wind and rain storm which swept over Ohio Monday night was at its height at Lima, Mrs. John Fitzgerald, wife of a wealthy North Side citizen, was overcome with fright and died before medical aid could be summoned. Physicians state that she was frightened to death. The Main Street Presbyterian Church was struck by lightning and gutted by flames. The city was in darkness throughout the night, owing to the electric wires being carried down.

Dispatches received in Cincinnati yesterday from various points in Ohio and Kentucky tell of great damage by a severe wind, rain and hail storm Monday night. During the height of the storm the wind reached a velocity of from forty to sixty miles an hour. The telegraph and telephone companies suffered severely by wires being blown down in all directions. At Lancaster, Ohio, several buildings were wrecked, and considerable damage is reported throughout the country. The roofs of several dwellings at Springfield and Hamilton, Ohio, were blown off during the storm. At Eaton, Ohio, a schoolhouse was razed, and many dwellings, barns and small buildings were demolished. Miss Bertha Hart and twenty-five pupils were in the school building when it collapsed but aside from a few minor bruises, all escaped injury.

Cruel Treatment of Boy.

Enticed by an offer to join a baseball team and captured and held prisoner for five or six hours by a gang of four white and eight negro boys was the experience of Owen Fuqua, eleven years old, son of C. B. Fuqua, manager of the Commercial Printing Company, of Lynchburg, and Tom Mays, thirteen years, of Amherst county, who lives in the city with his grandmother. The lads were going to school and they were taken by force to a vacant stable on the outskirts of the city, where they were tied with ropes and badly mistreated in true dime-novel fashion. The gang danced about and sticks, declaring they were getting even for past wrongs. When the captives called for help, they were told to stop under threat of death. Shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon the major portion of the gang left for dinner, leaving a guard over the boys. The guard took pity on the little fellows and released them. The police are investigating the case.

Mr. Lamb's Speech.

Capt. Lamb spoke in the House yesterday in support of the bill to reduce the tariff on Philippine products. Incidentally, Captain Lamb made a reply to the assertion of Representative Adams, of Wisconsin, who said he discovered when in Richmond to address the convention of commissioners of agriculture last summer that three out of four of the southern democrats he met were glad Roosevelt had been elected and the republican tariff policy continued. After showing that Mr. Roosevelt had received but between five and six hundred votes in Richmond, Captain Lamb created much laughter and applause by declaring: "The gentleman should not take too seriously the declarations of southern men who are entertaining him." A word picture of the prosperity of the south was made by Mr. Lamb who will vote first for the minority substitute and on its defeat, for the majority bill. The tariff, he predicts, will cause the downfall of the republican party in the next presidential campaign.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one for four weeks when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure, stomach, liver and kidney disorders at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are the best thing for stomach troubles and constipation I have ever sold," says J. R. Cullman, a druggist of Potteryville, Mich. They are easy to take and always give satisfaction. I tell my customers to try them and if not satisfactory to come back and get their money, but have never had a complaint." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Perfection can only be attained in the physical by allowing Nature to appropriate and not dissipate her own resources. Cathartics, gripe, weaken—disrupt, while DeWitt's Little Early Riser simply expel all putrid matter and bile, thus allowing the liver to assume normal activity. Good for the complexion. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King Street.

Successful Season Sale.

The unusually large Christmas business has left us with many broken lots of merchandise, and as it is nearing time for our semi-annual inventory we desire to close out these odd lots and at the same time reduce our stock as much as possible so as to lighten the labor of stock taking.

To do this we are offering for ten days commencing January 15th some of the greatest bargains that has ever gone over our counters. These are not damaged or out of season goods, but real reductions, goods that we are sacrificing solely to reduce stock.
